shows this picturesque tract of potential home acres at its very best. The freshness and luxuriance of the early Summer verdure and the fertility of the farm land, cultivated and uncultivated, together with the magnificent sweeps of Westchester views, will be found most eloquent advocates for joining this unique and restricted residence colony. Besides its great natural beauty, other exceptional advantages are the extraordinary variety of sites and the convenience to the city, Sound shore and a large number of the finest country clubs and golf courses in the county.

Maps and particulars on request. Also appointments for inspection.

FARM PROPERTY.
New Jersey.
A 750 ACRE FARM
WITHIN A FEW MILES OF NEW YORK CITY.
Beautiful views of the hills and mountains of Northern New Jersey. Abundance of never failing springs of the finest water, and water power. Nearly one mile of frontage on a main artery running from New York, Newark and the Orange to the interior. The best of train service to New York; A. R. R. switch on the property. Within one hour from heart of New York City by rail or auto. Large areas, suitable for aviation, and also rolling country for golf links. A large part of the land is in fine state of production and easily tilled, as there are practically no stones. There are eight dwellings, and barns for over 200 head of stock. This is the largest and best farm within the Metropolitan District. Its proximity to the heart of the market makes it an exceptional opportunity for a COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT. IT WILL PAY 12% NET on the investment and will materially increase in value when the vehicular tunnel under the Hudson is completed. For a gentleman's country home it has natural advantages unequalled. The property must be seen to be appreciated. For further details address
